Civil Action No. 4:20-cv-959-BJ

PLAINTIFFS' AMENDED MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, NextGear Capital, Inc. and Automotive Finance Corporation, by and through its undersigned counsel, files this Amended Motion for Leave to File Plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint ("Motion for Leave") and would respectfully show the Court the following:

I.
RELEVANT FACTS

1. On August 24, 2020, the Plaintiffs filed their original Complaint [Doc. #1] against defendants Druen, Inc. d/b/a Lawton Auto Auction a/k/a Lawton Cache Auto Auction, Lisa Druen, Michael Vernon Garrison d/b/a Rock Hill Used Cars, and Austin Michael Garrison a/k/a Mike Garrison d/b/a Austin Financial Services (collectively, the "Defendants") for breach of contract, conversion, fraud, conspiracy to commit fraud, and exemplary damages.

2. Defendants Michael Vernon Garrison d/b/a Rock Hill Used Cars and Austin Michael Garrison d/b/a Austin Financial Services filed their pro se answer to Plaintiff's Original Complaint on September 21, 2020 [Doc. # 5]. That same day, the Court entered an Order [Doc. # 6] requiring Plaintiffs to file an amended complaint containing additional details to support why venue was proper in the District and Division of the Northern District of Texas. Defendants Druen, Inc. d/b/a Lawton Auto Auction and Lisa Druen subsequently filed their Original Answer and entered an appearance in the above-styled matter on October 7, 2020.

3. Plaintiffs timely filed their First Amended Complaint on October 12, 2020 [Doc. # 14], which contained additional factual allegations as to why venue was appropriate in the Northern District of Texas. Since that time, counsel for Plaintiffs has conferred with the pro se Defendants and counsel for Defendants Druen, Inc. d/b/a Lawton Auto Auction and Lisa Druen. Pursuant to informal discovery and documents exchanged between Plaintiffs' counsel and Austin Michael Garrison d/b/a Austin Financial Services, plaintiff NextGear Capital, Inc. filed a motion to dismiss its breach of contract claims as to Austin Michael Garrison only, which is pending before this Court. Meanwhile, Plaintiffs have served numerous subpoenas on third parties in order to support their allegations against the remaining Defendants.

4. Pursuant to the Scheduling Order entered in the above-styled case [Doc. # 23] on November 24, 2020, the deadline for parties to file motions for leave to add additional parties or defendants is March 1, 2021. Accordingly, this Motion for Leave is timely filed.

5. As a result of additional information and documents received by Plaintiffs since the filing of Plaintiffs' First Amended Original Complaint, Plaintiffs have confirmed that Emmett Druen, who is believed to be the husband of Lisa Druen, has personally participated in the fraudulent conduct related to the creation, generation, issuance, and circulation of false, fraudulent, and fictitious invoices from Druen, Inc. d/b/a Lawton Auto Auction upon which Plaintiffs relied when provided financing requested by Michael Vernon Garrison d/b/a Rock Hill Used Cars.

Plaintiffs' review of the invoices from Druien, Inc. d/b/a Lawton Auto Auction show that Emmett Druien personally sold at least two vehicles or trailers that are the subject of Plaintiffs' fraud claims against the remaining Defendants. For these reasons, Plaintiffs request the Court for leave to add Emmett Druien as an additional defendant pursuant to the draft Second Amended Complaint attached hereto.

II. ARGUMENTS & AUTHORITIES

6. Plaintiffs file this Motion for Leave pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2). Rule 15(a)(2) allows a party to amend with either the opposing party's written consent or the Court's leave, which "shall be freely given when justice so requires." Fed. R. Civ. P. 15. The phrase "shall be freely given when justice so requires" evinces a bias in favor of granting leave to amend. See, e.g., Carson v. Polley, 689 F.2d 562, 584 (5th Cir. 1982). The policy of the federal rules is to permit liberal amendment to facilitate determination of claims on the merits and to prevent litigation from becoming a technical exercise in the fine points of pleading. See, e.g., Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962). Thus, unless there is a substantial reason to deny leave to amend, the discretion of the district court is not broad enough to permit denial. See Lone Star Motor Import v. Citroen Cars, 288 F.2d 69, 75 (5th Cir. 1981).

7. There are no reasons such as undue delay, bad faith, dilatory motive on the part of the Plaintiffs, or undue prejudice to permit the requested amendment of the Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint. See, e.g., Carson v. Polley, 689 F.2d 562, 584 (5th Cir. 1982). The addition of Emmett Druien as a party to this lawsuit will not unduly prejudice the remaining Defendants, as Plaintiffs have timely sought leave to amend, and the claims against Emmett Druien for fraud and conspiracy to commit fraud are consistent with the claims of fraud as to the remaining Defendants and dependent on substantially the same facts and transactions. Thus, amending Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint at this time will not serve to prejudice Defendants.

III.
CONCLUSION AND REQUEST FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated above, the Plaintiffs respectfully request the Court grant the Plaintiffs leave to amend their First Amended Original Complaint [Doc. # 14] by filing the proposed Second Amended Original Complaint attached hereto as Exhibit "A" so that Plaintiffs can pursue their claims of fraud and conspiracy to commit fraud against Emmett Druen, along with all other and additional damages associated therewith and which survive the First Amended Original Complaint.

CERTIFICATE OF CONFERENCE

This is to certify that on February 26, 2021, I placed a phone call to Richard Tallini of Bailey & Galyen, counsel for Druen, Inc. and Lisa Druen. Previously, I was advised by the legal assistant at Bailey & Galyen that Joseph Vacek, counsel of record, was no longer employed at Bailey & Galyen and is no longer the attorney representing Druen, Inc. and Lisa Druen. Instead, I was informed Richard Tallini had taken over for Mr. Vacek, although nothing has been filed indicating a change in lead counsel. Pursuant to my February 26th phone call to Richard Tallini, I left Mr. Tallini a voicemail message to call me back. However, at the time of filing this motion, Mr. Tallini has not returned my phone call. Additionally, on February 25, 2021, I reached out to pro se defendants M. Garrison and A. Garrison by e-mail, as no phone number was listed in their answer on file, seeking a conference to discuss various matters, which would have included the instant motion. In the February 25th e-mail, I requested they give me a call back to discuss. However, neither M. Garrison nor A. Garrison have responded to my e-mail inquiry or placed a call to my office. Accordingly, it is unknown whether defendants in this matter oppose the relief sought in this motion.
